

Acharei Mot* Answers

1. With a change of heart
2. A broken and contrite heart
3. The Sin Nadab and Abihu
4. Keeping the commandments.
5. No, the goats were separated and selected by the casting of lots.
6. This is a symbolic gesture of removing the sins of Yisrael and sending the sins into an area that was uninhabited.
7. To be reminded of the affliction of sin
8. He wanted Yisrael to Remember Him when the sacrifices occurred at the tabernacle. This helped prevent Yisrael's desire to turn the sacrifices of HaShem into idolatrous sacrifices. This also guaranteed uniformity in the sacrificial system.
9. A broken and contrite heart prevents sin, and that all believers should be unified by worshiping HaShem exactly like He commands.