

Beha'alot'cha Answers

1. To train The Children of Yisrael before entering the promised land.
2. To remember His deeds and to be content with what HaShem provides
3. Remembering HaShem's past miracles strengthens our belief that He will provide the miracles we need in the future.
4. Passover
5. Contentment allows us to surrender every circumstance to HaShem?
6. "Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content."
7. By remembering what HaShem has done for us in the past and by being content with our present situation.