

Chayei Sarah Answers

1. To learn to serve HaShem by the way we live.
2. HaShem's supernatural involvement can be seen in the wisdom Avraham uses by deciding not to send his son.
3. The servants dedication to Avraham is supernaturally inspired.
4. Trust and loyalty
5. The trustworthiness of the servant allowed Avraham to send the servant out in complete faith
6. Because the servant would fulfill Avraham's will even when Avraham was not present
7. So that other people can see HaShem in his people.