

Toldot Answers

1. By observing the actions of individuals claiming to follow Yeshua.
2. By voluntarily submitting to HaShem's will when confronted on the Damascus road.
3. When we chose to submit, we become partners in HaShem's plan.
4. Voluntarily serving HaShem allows the Ruach HaKodesh to work freely in us.
5. Stubbornness makes us inflexible. Therefore, we are not willing to put our fleshly desires aside and focus on our spiritual needs.
6. He lost his birthright
7. Fortitude is needed so that we can overcome temptations
8. When we voluntarily make Yeshua Lord of our life we become vessels that the Ruach HaKodesh can use as a testimony to the world.
