

Yitro Answers

1. Many believers forget that they are part of a greater body
2. preparation, reliance, and revelation
3. Preparation
4. Assembling like minded believers
5. The Torah
6. The Torah is the definitive word of HaShem. Therefore, the Torah supersedes all man made doctrines and precepts. As a result, the Torah is the only standard that can be used to create a unified body.
7. Reliance
8. When we learn to rely and trust others we learn that we do not have to carry the whole load ourselves. As a result, it strengthens the whole body. This is very similar to the camaraderie that is present between soldiers.
9. Strengthening individuals by placing them in positions that is complementary to his or her calling. When individuals are placed where they are called the whole body can rely on his or her strength to support the needs of the whole body.
10. Revelation
11. When each individual is given a revelation based on the Torah the individuals faith is strengthened. As a result, when individuals with interpretations contrary to the Torah try to deceive the community is very difficult.
12. The Torah
13. It builds camaraderie and allows each individual to serve in the position that HaShem has created for them.
14. Our faith. Therefore, each individual is strengthened against the attacks of deceiving people. This includes deceiving congregational leaders.
